NEW APPLICANT

The Gates Foundation-Ross County Scholar's Fund awards scholarships to undergraduate college students who have graduated from Ross County, Ohio, high schools. (You must have attended your entire senior year of high school at a Ross County, Ohio, school.) Criteria for scholarship awards are based on: economic need, social skills, and ability to do college work. You may apply for the scholarship for each year of college, through a renewal application, and you are eligible to be considered for renewal of the scholarship for up to a total of four years.

Upon submission of the application, you must have been accepted at one or more institutions of higher education.

Please attach to this application form the following documents:

- A. Documents confirming your acceptance at schools listed in question no. 6 on this form.
